DEATHS

Life Is But A Brief Span, A Debt That All Must Pay

TAYLOR

Virgil B. Taylor, aged six months, son of Washington and Mary Faulkner Taylor, died Sunday morning at the home of his parents, near Hutchison, after a short illness. The funeral was held at three o'clock yesterday afternoon, with services conducted at the grave in the Paris cemetery by Rev. T. S. Smylie, pastor of the Paris Presbyterian church.

TERRY

E. E. Terry, aged forty-nine, died Saturday afternoon at five o'clock of cancer of the stomach, at his home near North Middletown. He is survived by one brother, J. E. Terry, of Millersburg, and one sister, Mrs. Alta Perkins, of Gelford, Indiana. Funeral services were held yesterday morning at the Mt. Carmel church, followed by interment in the North Middletown Cemetery.

DOTSON

Greenberry N. Dotson, aged sixty-eight, a native of Nicholas county, died at his home near Brentsville, this county, yesterday morning, following a long illness due to a complication of diseases.

Mr. Dotson is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Martha Kenton, Dayton, O., and Mrs. Malinda Earlywine, of Spencer county, and four brothers, R. W. Dotson, Bourbon county, J. L. Dotson, Nicholas county, F. M. Dotson, Paris, and J. L. Dotson, Jr., Louisville.

The funeral will be held at the family home at eleven o'clock tomorrow (Wednesday) morning. The body will be taken to Bald Hill, in Nicholas county, for interment.

HOWK

—Mrs. Mary C. Howk, aged ninety-two, one of the best-known women of Harrison county, died at an early hour Friday morning at her home in Cynthiana, following a long illness, due to the infirmities of age. Mrs. Howk is survived by two sons, Charles and George Howk, of Cynthiana.

The funeral was held at the family residence in Cynthiana, Saturday afternoon, with services conducted by Rev. E. G. Davis, assisted by Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian church. The interment followed on the family lot in Battle Grove Cemetery. The pall-bearers were Todd Whaley, W. R. Leek, C. A. Renaker, Jim Chowning, W. L. Northcott, C. M. and J. B. Simpson.

TRIBBLE

—Mrs. Martha Tribble, aged eighty-eight, one of the pioneer residents of Nicholas county, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mary Hamm, in Carlisle, Friday night, as the result of infirmities of age.

Mrs. Tribble was the widow of Jas. A. Tribble, who preceded her to the grave forty years ago. She was a daughter of William and Patsy Rupard, of Clark county, her husband being a native of Clark county. Mr. and Mrs. Tribble moved to Nicholas county about sixty years ago.

Mrs. Tribble is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Mary Hamm, with whom she made her home; two sons, Lon M. Tribble, of Paris, and Jos. Tribble, of Florida, and one brother, A. H. Rupard, of Winchester.

The funeral and burial took place at Carlisle, Sunday afternoon, with services conducted by the pastor of the Carlisle Baptist church.

BETTIS

Anderson B. Bettis, aged eighty-five, a native of Robertson county, died in the Massie Hospital, in this city, yesterday morning, of the infirmities of age. Mr. Bettis had been an inmate of the County Infirmary for several years, and was brought to the Hospital a few days ago for treatment.

Thirty years ago Mr. Bettis, while a resident of Mt. Olivet, invested one dollar in a ticket in the Louisiana State Lottery, which brought him the handsome return of $15,000. He invested part of the proceeds in a nice farm, on which he resided for many years. Finally disposing of the farm, he moved to Nicholas county, and from there to Bourbon. Financial reverses overtaking him, he was compelled to become a charge on the bounty of the county, and was taken to the Infirmary, where he resided to the time he was removed to the Hospital. So far as can be ascertained he had no family and no relatives in this vicinity.

The funeral will be held this afternoon, with services conducted at the grave in the Paris Cemetery.

"Come into my parlor, said the spider to the fly." David Wark Griffith must be truly a brave man to come into Kentucky at the invitation of Gov. Morrow, despite the awful risk he ran, since he must know that he had hardly one chance in a million of getting out of Kentucky without being made a Colonel on Morrow's staff. But it seems he was lucky, after all.

WOLLSTEIN—SEIDLING

A telegram to Mrs. Louis Wollstein, of Paris Saturday morning, bore tidings announcing the wedding, in Oklahoma City, Okla., Friday, of her daughter, Miss Hazel Wollstein, to Mr. Oscar Seidling, of that city.

The bride left Paris a few weeks ago for a visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. David Bachrach, in Oklahoma City, and to Mr. and Mrs. George Schwartz, in Purcell, Oklahoma. Mr. Seidling was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bachrach, and the result of the meeting between the Kentucky girl and Mr. Seidling was a genuine love-at-first-sight. From this casual acquaintance the romance proceeded to its fulfillment when the young couple were married.

The announcement of Miss Wollstein's marriage came as a surprise to her mother and her brothers, Sello and Harold Wollstein, of Paris. Her father, Louis Wollstein, left Paris a few days ago, en route to visit his daughters, but stopped over at Hot Springs, Ark., for a few days stay. The bride is one of the loveliest and most charming young women of Paris whose personal charm and graciousness made her a universal favorite and a host of warm friends. Mr. Seidling is a prominent young business man of Oklahoma City, coming there very recently from New York, where he had been engaged in business.

THE NEWS wishes Mr. and Mrs. Seidling a long and happy married life, and this is the wish of all who know the fair bride.

LODGE NOTES

The District meeting of the Rebekah Assembly I. O. O. F. of Kentucky will convene in Paris on Thursday night, February 23. Delegates from surrounding towns who attend will be guests of Paris Rebekah Lodge No. 7.

—Grand Master E. B. January, and Grand Secretary R. G. Elliott have made a proposition to the Odd Fellows lodges in the State that they will furnish a room of two beds in the new hospital building at the Odd Fellows' Home and dedicate to the lodge showing the largest increase in membership during the month of April and also to furnish a room with six beds for the lodge that takes in the largest number of members between January 1 and July 1.

—Wm. W. Dudley, of Paris, has been promoted to a position on the staff of Brigadier-General James E. McCracken, of the Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, as Signal Officer, with the rank of Colonel. Mr. Dudley has for years been re-elected Captain of A. J. Lovely Co., No. 34, U. R. of K. P., Paris, and perhaps no man in the State has taken a deeper interest in the work and welfare of the order. Here's to "Colonel" Dudley. May you soon rise to the rank of General!
